Descripci??n de la propiedad:

Espanol abajo. The enchanting town of Talpa de Allende, located in Jalisco, is a community situated in the Sierra Madre mountains. Known as a "pueblo magico," or magic village, this mining town is celebrated for its cultural heritage and historical preservation. Each day, the scents of guava, coffee, and gum trees fill the air, enveloping this charming town characterized by its mountainous scenery, impressive old residences, and hardworking locals. It is always prepared to greet visitors drawn by one of humanity's most surprising motivations: faith. Talpa serves as a prominent destination along a well-traveled pilgrimage route, with journeys that can range from just a few kilometers to over a hundred. Just a 5 minute drive from Talpa, but you'll feel miles away on this pastoral 9 hectare
