Property Description:

V Marina is another of several developments from the notable HEVA group. The construction and finishes are top quality and the property is always in high demand. It comes with gym, roof top entertainment areas, restaurant and pool. The unit is in the most desired corner which is in the north west corner of tower A. Being situated on the fairway of the golf course, it feels if the course is part of the property. This also gives owners the assurance that the view is permanent. The kitchen and living room open out onto the corner terrace, where the doors can be fully retracted to incorporate the terrace into the living area. There you will be able to sit in comfort while watching the sunset. Being north west facing, you have shade until the afternoon, offering cool surroundings.
